

Almost dancing

I wanna run away with thee go as far as we can see a vision of what still might be
I wanna feel the breeze

I wanna spend my time with you
It seems to me that we should do it all before the well runs dry
I wanna touch the sky

and it feels
Like I am
Almost dancing
And it feels
Like I am
Almost dancing

I wanna change my life about
With out a fight or shouting out
Even when I'm filled with doubt It's you I'm coming to

I wanna tell you everything
What can't be said I might sing
I dream of you - it's not enough
I want to drink you up

and it feels
Like I am
Almost dancing
And it feels
Like I am
Almost dancing
