

Say you love me

Say you love me
all I need to know
you'll always be there no matter where we go

I rode the million miles
I looked in all their lovely eyes I'd ride the wild wind on
the waves
to see you again
and I know why I 'll love you 'til I die

Sweet surrender
all your trust in me
with you with out ending its where I want to be

We lie completely still I've loved you
I always will I'd ride the wild wind on
the waves
to see you again
and I know why
I'll never say goodbye
